

A Special Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday evening, January 31, 1913, at 8 o'clock. Work in M. M. degree. E. L. Herndon, W. M.
W. O. White, Secretary.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—For Sale—Two fine fresh cows.
Apply to B. F. Douthitt, Walhalla, ad.
—Misses Annie, Katie and Minnie Fischesser left last Thursday for Charlotte, N. C., where they will spend the winter visiting their sisters, Mesdames C. Valera and A. R.
William.

—Our entire stock of ladies' long coats, your choice $5. C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla.

—E. L. DuPre, of Mount Sterling, N. C., is spending a while at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M.
DuPre, near town. The large lumbering concern with which Mr. Du-Pre has been engaged for some time has temporarily closed down and he will be here during the time the plant is idle.

—Just received, a fresh car of mules. Come to see us at once for bargains. Westminster Oil and Fertilizer Co., E. C. Maret, Pres. ad.

—We direct attention to the advertisement of Lowry & Holloway, which appears on this page. Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week will be special days at the Lowry & Holloway store, and a cordial welcome awaits all. Read their interesting statement and call on them. And don't forget the keys!

—For Sale—Several farms; 50 to 200 acres. Cash or easy terms. Call on or write Jas. H. Darby, Seneca Oil Mill, Seneca, S. C. ad.

—The many friends of Miss Gussie DuPre hope to hear of her early recovery from her present indisposition. Miss DuPre, after four years of hard study at Rock Hill, assumed the duties of teacher at the Walhalla mill village school, and her present indisposition is due to her arduous labors in the school room. She hopes soon to be able to resume her duties, but a rest will be necessary.

—Pleasant and profitable employment for women, girls and boys. Apply to Hetrick Hosiery Mills, Walhalla, S. C. t. f. adv.

—There will be services at Whit-mire's church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Salem at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Both services will begin promptly at the hour stated, and all members are urged to attend, and the public will be cordially welcomed. Immediately following each service a church conference will be held. The pastor hopes to meet the entire membership.

—The Seneca Bank and the Westminster Bank will receive payments and give receipts to those who owe me, when it is not convenient for you to find my son, Wales Lowry. Please pay promptly. I cannot carry over any paper except as already agreed.
(adv.) T. M. Lowery.

—Governor Blease has appointed Supervisor W. C. Foster as a delegate from South Carolina to the meeting to be held at Asheville, N.
C., February 12th. This meeting will be in the interest of co-operation of the Southern National Highway Association with the Ocean-to-Ocean Highway Association of Southern California, Arizona and New Mexico, in establishing a Trans-Continental Highway sufficiently far south to be of use all the year, especially in winter.

—Ringlet Barred Plymouth Rocks; best in the world for both show and utility purposes. Beginning February 1st I will have a few settings of eggs to sell at reasonable prices from the finest flock in the South. J. E. Kohn, Newnan, Ga., P. O. Box 93. 5-6*

—Mrs. Geo. M. Wilcox was hostess to the Hayne Circle on Tuesday of last week. An interesting literary and musical program was rendered, and during the social hour a tempting salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. B. S.
Dendy and Miss Daisy Strong. The members present were Mesdames J. A.
Ansel, L. M. Brown, C. W. Bauknight, J. H. Darby, J. B. S. Dendy, E.
L. Herndon, W. C. Hughes, R. L. Rogers, J. B. Umberger and W. L. Ver-ner; Misses Mary Ansel, Eloise and Irene Strother, Daisy Strong, Gertrude Smith and Ruth Walker.

—Ladies' coat suits $5. C. W.
Pitchford, Walhalla.

—From the Cincinnati Post of January 21st we learn that Irvin C.
Boggs has been chosen to the position of assistant secretary of the Columbia Life Insurance Company with headquarters in that city. Mr. Boggs is a son of J. C. C. Boggs, of Pickens, and a grandson of our townsmen, J. W. Holzman, Esq., with whom he spent some time here last summer while on a visit to his old home. Mr. Boggs went to Cincinnati about three years ago, entering business there in the insurance field, in which he has several times received promotions. We congratulate our young friend and wish for his continued success.

Dr. Fahnestock, dentist, in office Wednesdays and Saturdays. Will make appointments for other days if desired.

—Elliott Preston, aged 15, and T.
S. Parks, aged 12, both colored boys, were lodged in jail Monday night, charged with stealing. The young negroes have confessed to the two thefts with which they are charged, namely, the taking of a watch from McDonald's store at Richland, and entering the residence of Mrs. John B. Pickett, in the Bounty Land community, from which sixteen dollars in cash was stolen. The Parks boy is implicated in both affairs. It has been he who took the watch from the store, and he also assisted in the entrance to Mrs. Pickett's residence.
This latter offense was committed in the day time, one of the boys holding open a window while the other entered the house and got the money.
They were arrested and brought to Walhalla Monday night by Sheriff John W. Davis.

—Bargains in children's shoes.
Your choice 50c. pair. C. W. Pitchford, Walhalla.

—Jas. F. Neville, of West Union, is in Washington, D. C., for a few days on business.

—Pay your town licenses. See notice by Jas. M. Moss, Clerk and Treasurer, and call on him before the 1st.

—Married, at the residence of the bride's father, on Sunday, January 26th, Miss Namer Burrell and Arche-lous B. Crow, of North Carolina. Magistrate Jesse Lay performed the ceremony. We join with others in extending congratulations and good wishes.

—For Sale—One 15-h. p. gasoline engine (International Harvester), and corn mill complete; good location; plant complete, with good will to purchaser. Apply to S. K. Dendy, Walhalla. adv.-5-1f.

—James T. Fowler was among the visitors in Walhalla yesterday. Mr.
Fowler has been visiting in the Salem section for some weeks, having recently returned to Oconee from Texas, where he, with his family, have resided for ten years. Mr. Fowler is accompanied on this trip by his wife, his mother, Mrs. N. A. Fowler, and his brother, Walter D. They have been making their home at Rosenberg, Texas. Mr. Fowler has not disposed of his Texas property as yet, though it is possible that he may decide to make Oconee his home.
He has numerous friends here who are glad to welcome him back.

—W. A. Holcomb, of Danielsville, Ga., was among friends in Walhalla for a short while last week. Mr.
Holcomb was accompanied to Oconee by his wife and daughter, who spent their time with relatives at Westminster. Mr. Holcomb is a native of the Richland and Bounty Land section of Oconee, and left here many years ago to make his home in Georgia. It has been 20 years since he was in Walhalla. His appearance here in the office of his old school-mate, Col. R. T. Jaynes, came as a most pleasant surprise and the two spent quite a while together recalling the old days of school in the Richland community. Mr. Holcomb made many new friends while here, who will be glad to welcome him back in the future.

—Ben C. Stokes, of Greer, Greenville county, has purchased 110 acres of land in the Salem section of Oconee and will make his home in this county, engaging in farming. The tract which he purchased is a part of extensive holdings known as the Silton lands. Mr. Stokes will be cordially welcomed to this county. It is stated that there are a number of Greenville and Anderson farmers contemplating removal to Oconee in the near future, and they will be royally welcomed. Oconee's experience so far has been that her sister counties furnish some mighty good citizens, and it is indeed gratifying to have them come among us. They are proving the wisdom of their course, too, by giving evidence of a marked degree of prosperity in their adopted homes.

—Two good farm mares, weigh 900 to 1,000 pounds, for sale at Carter & Co.'s. adv.

—Sheriff John W. Davis, Rural Policeman J. H. Mason and Constable Gus McPhail "flushed" a quartette of crap shooters last Saturday night in the Oakway section. The happy gamesters were busily engaged in the intricacies of "twirling the bones" while the officers were but a few feet away watching the progress of the game and attentively listening to the conversation. There were three negroes and one white man, and all were placed under arrest. The white man was arrested on the spot and "disarmed" of his liquor and gun.
The negroes all escaped to their homes, but were later arrested. The white man escaped in the tussel with the officers. The white man is known as "Wild" Tucker, of Georgia. The three negroes were tried before Magistrate Eubanks and sent up for 30 days each. This morning they were having the finishing touches put on their "costumes" at the blacksmith shop.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Polk Laney, which occurred at her home in Walhalla last Sunday morning about 2 o'clock. She was taken suddenly ill Saturday evening and rapidly grew worse until the end.
She was about 35 years of age, and is survived by her husband and several children, one an infant of only a few months. Mrs. Laney's health had not been very good for several years, but for the past year was somewhat improved. The immediate cause of her death was acute indig-estation. On Monday afternoon her remains were laid to rest in Westview cemetery beside a daughter and a granddaughter who had died within the past year, the grand-child having died only a few weeks ago. Mrs.
Laney was a kind and loving wife and mother and will be greatly missented in the home. To the bereaved husband and children is extended the sympathy of numerous friends.

Frightful Polar Winds blow with terrific force at the far north, and play havoc with the skin, causing red, rough or sore, chapped hands and lips, that need Bucklen's Arnica Salve to heal them. It makes the skin soft and smooth. Unrivaled for cold sores, also burns, boils, sores, ulcers, cuts, bruises and plies. Only 25c. at all druggists. adv.

Business Meeting Concerns Local.

There will be business of special importance to be attended to at the next meeting of Coneross Local Union, No. 76. All members are urged to attend promptly. The meeting will be held next Saturday, February 1st, at 2 o'clock p. m., at Blue Ridge school house. Let all members be present. F. H. Burley, Secretary.

Mrs. A. R. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets.
She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach, for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by all dealers. ad.

WALHALLA MILL VILLAGE.

Walhalla, Jan. 27.—Editor Keowee Courier: We would like to say a few words in regard to our village. Everything is going on nicely at this time.

We regret very much to learn that Miss Gussie DuPre, our school teacher, is sick. We hope to hear of her early recovery.

M. H. Hall, who has been overseer of carding at this place, has resigned and has accepted a like position with one of the mills at Clinton.

The sad news of the death of Mrs.
Polk Laney was received in our village early yesterday (Sunday) morning. It was a great shock to all who knew Mrs. Laney to hear of her death. The bereaved husband and children and other relatives have the sympathy of all throughout the village.

Rev. E. L. Henderson, of the Wesleyan Methodist church, has just closed a two weeks' meeting at this place. He was assisted by John P.
Byars, teacher and singing evangelist, of Spartanburg. It is said to have been one of the greatest revivals ever held at this place and the Lord worked mightily. There were 22 souls saved during the meeting.
Rev. Henderson is an able and hard-working Wesleyan minister of Central, and great good was accomplished through him in every way during the meeting. Owing to the rainy weather the attendance was not as large as it would have been had the weather been fair, but there was a good attendance at all times. Bros.
Henderson and Byars left for their homes on the early train this morning.

Rev. L. Ramsey has been called as pastor of the Wesleyan church here.
He will preach here on the third Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night in next month.

Rev. J. O. Burnette will preach here next Sunday night at 7.30 o'clock.

An Operative.

WALHALLA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Waddy Duncan, a member of the eighth grade, was selected as the representative of the school to the county oratorical contest at the meeting held at the Court House last Friday evening. Despite the inclement weather quite a number of patrons and pupils were present. The contest was interesting and close.
The title of the winner's selection was "The Spirit of Conquest." While the judges were making their decision, Misses Myrtle and Ruth Brown sang "Slight Musings," which was very much enjoyed by the audience.

Miss Georgia Ray MacMillan will appear at the Court House on Friday evening, January 31, in original stories and studies from child life.
She will give juvenile sketches from Rudyard Kipling, Eugene Field, James Whitcomb Riley and others.
In addition to her own, she gives plantation sketches from O. Henry, Frank L. Stanton, "Uncle Remus," and Harris Dickson. The net proceeds will be given the track team of the high school. The prices of admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for school children. The entertainment will begin at 8.15 p. m. Those who attend are assured a treat. Miss MacMillan makes a good impression wherever she appears. "Bill Arr" said of her: "She excels any I have ever heard."

The new officers of the Thompson Literary Society are: Derrill Darby, president; Fred Fowler, vice president; Annie Wilson, secretary and treasurer; Caro Probst, orderly clerk.

The Issaquena Literary Society, at their regular meeting on Friday afternoon, will carry out the following program:

1. Roll call and reading of minutes.
2. Song.
3. Reading—Ida Biemann (Death of Charles the First).
4. Essay—"On Reading Books," Minnie Barker.
5. Declaration—"The Wrong Path," Luther Davis.
6. Song.
7. Current Events—Pawnee Edwards.
8. Recitation—"The Love of Childhood," Idah Pitchford.
9. School Notes—Waddy Duncan.
10. Song.
11. Debate—"Resolved, That in the United States a working day should be eight hours only, in length." Affirmative, Minnie Burton, Sadie Hutchison, Bishop Grant; negative, Irene White, Lola Kelley, Albert Meiburg.

Daggers and Bullets Were Used.

London, Jan. 27.—Uncensored Constantinople dispatches received in London confirm the previous accounts of the revolt against the government and the shooting of the war minister Nazim Pasha.
The dispatches added little to the details already known, but state that the autopsy on the officers killed disclosed that the bodies bore dagger wounds, as well as bullet wounds, thus throwing doubt on the assertion that the killing was unpremeditated.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit.
For sale by all dealers. adv.

Wanted Mother-in-Law Slain?

Decatur, Ala., Jan. 26.—Gilbert W.
McCarley, a dentist of Priceville, was convicted by a jury yesterday of attempting to hire two negroes to kill his mother-in-law, Mrs. Della Fennell. A few months ago McCarley caused the arrest of the two negroes, claiming they robbed him.

Aiken Man Shoots Himself.

Aiken, Jan. 25.—Marion Percival, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Aiken, shot and killed himself this afternoon. Mr. Percival was alone in his room at his home on York street, when about 1 o'clock, members of his family heard a pistol shot. They rushed to his room and found him lying on his bed, a smoking 38 caliber revolver by his side. He died in a few minutes afterwards without returning consciousness. As neither his family nor his friends can ascribe any motive which would prompt Mr.
Percival to take his own life, it is believed that the shooting was accidental, and that he was cleaning the pistol when it discharged.

The bullet entered Mr. Percival's head. He was about 50 years of age and had always lived in Aiken. He was a member of one of the county's most prominent families. For several years past he had been a sufferer from rheumatism and had been incapacitated for work.

These are, therefore, to cite and admonish all and singular the kindred and creditors of the said J. B. Tarrant, deceased, that they be and appear before me, in the Court of Probate, to be held at Walhalla Court House, South Carolina, on Thursday, the 30th day of January, 1913, after publication hereof, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any they have, why the said administration should not be granted.

Given under my hand and seal this 15th day of January, A. D. 1913.

(Seal.) V. F. MARTIN,
Judge of Probate for Oconee County, South Carolina.

Published on the 15th and 22d days of January, 1913, in the Keowee Courier and on the Court House door for the time prescribed by law.
